

NEBOSH National Certificate in Fire Safety and Risk Management for holders of the General Certificate

Course Details

The NEBOSH National Fire Safety and Risk Management Certificate provides an appropriate breadth of underpinning knowledge for non-specialists in fire safety to enable them to discharge more effectively their organisational duties or functions with respect to workplace fire safety.

The course is designed to enable holders of the National General Certificate who have passed the qualification in the last five years to complete the NEBOSH Fire Safety and Risk Management Certificate. The course therefore contains the additional units that are required to enable the student to complete the NEBOSH National Fire Safety and Risk Management Certificate.

The syllabus is divided into 2 Units and 6 elements in total:

- Unit FC 1 Fire Safety and Risk Management.
- Unit FC2 Practical Fire Risk Assessment.

Unit FC1

Element Title:

Managing fire safety

Principles of fire and explosion

Causes and prevention of fire

Fire protection in buildings

Safety of people in the event of a fire

Fire risk assessment

A Course for

Managers, supervisors, employee representatives and others it aims to equip holders to contribute to the conduct and review of fire risk assessments and fire preventive and protective measures within most workplaces.

Entry Requirements

There are no barriers to entry to a NEBOSH National Fire Safety and Risk Management Certificate programme but it should be noted that the assessment includes a requirement to write a short report.

Assessment

Each unit of the NEBOSH National Fire Safety and Risk Management Certificate is assessed separately. FC1 is assessed by a written examination. Unit FC2 is assessed by a practical fire risk assessment of a workplace. Candidates must achieve a pass standard in each unit to be awarded the NEBOSH National Fire Safety and Risk Management Certificate.

Learning Outcome

This course prepares students for the examination of The National Examination Board in Occupational Safety & Health (NEBOSH).

Progression after programme

National Diploma of Occupational Safety & Health.
