STAYING SAFE IN DECOMMISSIONING
LEVEL 1

Course Type: Level 1 Certificate in Staying Safe in the Decommissioning Industry

Length: 10 Days

Entry Requirements: Suitable for current and prospective operators in the Decommissioning Industry.

WHAT WILL YOU DO?
- Employment in the decommissioning industry
- Manual handling in the Decommissioning industry
- First aid in the Decommissioning industry
- Working at height in the Decommissioning industry
- Electrical awareness in the Decommissioning industry
- Fire safety in the Decommissioning industry
- Rope Access in the Decommissioning industry
- Employability in the Decommissioning industry

HOW AM I ASSESSED?
Question and answer session and multiple-choice exam papers. Coordinated into a final portfolio.

Anyone who is working or intends to work in the decommissioning industry needs a comprehensive knowledge of the many activities that are part of late life operations and decommissioning.

At Redcar & Cleveland College we provide a range of recognised unique qualifications to help you retrain and plan your entry into this rapidly growing industry.

This Level One qualification introduces both current and prospective employees to the decommissioning industry.

The course delivers an awareness of all the components required to operate safely on both onshore and offshore facilities that are in the process of being decommissioned.

CERTIFICATION
On successful completion of the course delegates will receive a college certificate in Staying Safe in the Decommissioning Industry.

HOW MUCH WILL THE COURSE COST?
The cost of this course is £250.

The fee includes full training programme and assessment at the end of the course.

Upon successful completion of the course, you will be provided with certification.

Tel: 01642 777 189
www.cleveland.ac.uk
business@the-etc.ac.uk

STAYING SAFE IN DECOMMISSIONING

WHY STUDY AT REDCAR & CLEVELAND COLLEGE?

Redcar & Cleveland College works closely with local and national businesses to create opportunities to train and study towards accredited qualifications.

Delivering quality employer-responsive training solutions to provide clear progression routes and tailored programmes to suit employer needs, we understand that your requirements are as unique as your business.

Using experienced tutors, we teach up to date skills, techniques and problem-solving solutions for situations encountered in industry.

Additionally, the facilities on which you will be training have been designed and built to industry standard and are part of a significant investment in industrial training at Redcar & Cleveland College, ensuring we are best equipped to meet the needs of employers or self-funded individuals seeking to further develop their skillset.

Our real working environments provide risk-free learning opportunities.

HOW DO I APPLY/ENROL?

You can apply to study on this course by visiting www.cleveland.ac.uk/apply and following the online guidance.

The course is delivered at Redcar & Cleveland College, situated in the very heart of Redcar.

If you want more information on the course, or wish to discuss the application process in more detail, you can contact the Commercial team on the details below.

All information is correct at time of publication – please get in touch to confirm course costs, start dates and any other details.

BDS BUSINESS DEVELOPMENT SOLUTIONS

etc. education training collective

Tel: 01642 777 189
www.cleveland.ac.uk
business@the-etc.ac.uk